Reading: Fisman and Golden, Chapter 3

Class Journal Questions:

- In your own words, explain why more corruption might cause a country to be poorer. Then, explain why being poor might cause a country to be more corrupt.
- What are some of the factors mentioned by the authors that help a country to reduce corruption?
- Why could the absence of corruption scandals mean that there is no corruption or that there is a lot of it?

Answers are due in your class journal by the start of class.
